Sidelights and a transom light the entrance. One over one windows light the house. Turned posts and jigsaw brackets embellish the proch. Asphalt shingles cover the roof. The house stands on a brick foundation. German siding sheathes the walls.

The central stair hall is flanked by a parlor to either side. A square newel post and turned balusters join a closed-stringer board trimmed with parallel lines of molding.

A frame tobacco barn appears to the northeast, and a well to the south is covered by a small frame structure.
